Committees Develop Plans for Observance of Annual Religious Emphasis Week in February

Junior Class to Sponsor Dance to Raise Funds For Annual Junior-Senior Formal Prom in Spring

Amateur Show Will Highlight Evening At Intermission

On Friday night, January 16, an informal dance, sponsored by the junior class, will be held in the main lounge of the Union from 8 p. m. until 11 p. m. Tickets will be sold for $.25 a couple and the money will be used for the annual junior-senior prom.

During the intermission, an amateur show will be staged, which will include talent from each of the four classes.

Louise Novinger will give a reading; Delores Peterson, a baton twirling act; and Loraine Mau will dance the Hula. Richard Oaker-son will give a reading.

Ensemble numbers are a sextette called the "Five Sharps and a Flat" consisting of Georgia Harnes, Angie Adams, Joan Kowitz, Joyce Brown, Veldeva Cochran, and Wanda David; a quartet, the "Tau Tones," John Lindell, Bob Humphrey, Frank Russell, and Don Corbin; and a girls' quartet, Ruth Tebow, Marym Croy, Marylyn LaMar, and Barbara LaMar.

Prospects for 1954 . . .

Today is Wednesday, January 13, the thirteenth day of the year 1954. We are glad it is not Friday the 13th because today we have some suggestions to present from the president of the Student Government Association. Stan Ogden makes the following comments regarding the use of the Bearcat Den.

1. Added equipment should be obtained for the pool tables. Score pads are necessary. No one in his right mind—unless he really belongs down in kindergarten—cares about making his marks on the wall.

2. More containers for waste paper are needed. Of course, the Den has some, but not enough.

3. Organizational plaques need attention. Some are in good state but others are bad. Perhaps they should be returned to the organizations for some face-lifting.

4. Ping pong paddles may be obtained in the future from the snack bar employees after the 50c fees are paid.

5. A new table for the Television set is to be installed soon.

6. Students on this campus who frequent the Den need to cooperate more fully. Cigarette ashes in coffee cups on messy tables turn the stomach of the least fastidious.

Where do you belong?

Notice

Mr. Robert Foster, registrar, and Mr. Everett Brown, of the Placement Bureau, want all seniors that will graduate this spring and this summer to attend a short meeting in auditorium today at 10 o'clock.

This meeting is very important!

John Barrett will be master of ceremonies at the amateur show Friday night.

THE STROLLER

Throughout the past week, the Stroller has obtained various students' opinions concerning the observance of Religious Emphasis Week on this campus.

Kay Milligan—I think that everyone should be aware of the important part that religion plays in all our lives and strive to keep religion alive at all times.

Dick Merkle—Religious Emphasis Week is a very good opportunity for students to realize the importance of religion in their lives. This week set aside for that purpose is a very good start toward that goal.

Mary Rucker—I am glad that the daily meetings are held where the students may conveniently attend.

Cyril Dougherty—Freedom to exercise religion involves free thinking and I think all of us agree that we should be allowed to think freely.

Bettebelle Pitts—I think that it is very worthwhile and something that every student should be interested in and take part in.

Allen Spies—I especially like the informal discussions which are held with the speakers at the meetings of the social organizations on the campus.

Joan Kowitz—Religious Emphasis Week emphasizes the importance of connecting our religious life with our everyday life, and demonstrates how our religious thinking affects our everyday thinking.

Stan Ogden—I think that religion on every college campus is very important.

The Alumni

Capt. Franklin J. Bithos, of Maryville, recently received the Commendation Ribbon for meritorious achievement in Japan. He was cited for obtaining competent instructors for training in specific field for the training section of the support group, Far East United States army forces in Japan. Captain Bithos was graduated with a B. S. degree in 1950.

Bill Sherman has been promoted to head basketball coach at Roseville, Michigan. He is also assistant football coach and teaches mathematics.

Bill is a graduate of the class of 1951.

Dale Hackett is Southwest Iowa high school coach of the year because he led Farragut to a second mythical state crown in six man football. In spite of losing three of his men from last year he did not accept defeat but went in and won the mythical crown again this year.

Dale was graduated from the College in 1936. He has taught at Farragut, Iowa, ten years.

He lettered three years in basketball in college and was chosen captain his senior year. Dale went out for football two years "just to pick up fundamentals."

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Strong of Kansas City spent Christmas and New Year's with Mr. Strong's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Strong.

Mr. Strong was a graduate of the College in 1950 and Mrs. Strong a graduate of 1951.

What Is Your Motto?

What is your motto? No, not your school or class motto, but something far more important. The motto of which I speak is the motto by which you form opinions of others. Today, more than ever before, the need for friends and a good reputation is very important. But because of gossip, petty jealousies, and misunderstandings, the reputation of far too many persons is destroyed.

Unconsciously we put ourselves on a pedestal which is just one step higher than anyone else can reach. Thus we are inclined to pull the reputation of others down, to judge unfairly, and to refuse to give them an equal chance. We, who are humans just as those about us, refuse to forgive and forget the misfortunes of our associates.

God created all men equal. Who are we to judge positively the character and qualities of our friends? There is good in every person, and without too much effort we can find it. The next time we are faced with judging a particular person, let's remember, he is human and so are we. Hear both sides of a story. Make your motto "Judge others as you would like them to judge you."—Rosalie Graham.

Will Our Hearts Be In It?

George Washington once said, "It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible." History seems to prove the accuracy of this statement, for many a nation that has rejected God and the Bible has decayed and been destroyed.

When this statement is seriously considered, it becomes very applicable to the students and faculty at NWMSC. In the coming Religious Emphasis Week, every individual would do well to ascertain his own personal relationship to God and to consider seriously the age-old question asked by Job, "How can a man be justified with God?"

In our emphasis upon such religious activities, there is a danger which we must avoid. Christ said to those of His own day, "This people honoreth Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me."

Let us be careful lest we give lip-service to Christ and His principles and yet have hearts that are not right with Him.

Therefore we should claim the prayer of the Psalmist, "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Religious Emphasis Week can be an unforgettable experience in our lives. Let us endeavor to make it so by individual examination and whole-hearted participation.

If people say things about you that are evil, live so that no one will believe them.

Paths are being made in undesirable places on the campus. Students appreciate the beauty of the College, for MOST of them prefer to keep the campus in good condition. Paths by a few thoughtless persons make it hard on ones who are willing to take responsibility to walk where they belong.

Delta Sigmas Have Ski Lodge Theme for Annual Winter Dance

Delta Sigma Epsilon's annual Snow Festival was held on Saturday, January 9, at the Union. The decoration committee, headed by Lavon Mattes and Barbara Taylor, transformed the room into a ski lodge. The dance was an informal sweater dance.

During the intermission, a program was presented. Refreshments of hot chocolate and doughnuts were served.

Guests included college officials, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. Trego Garrett as chaperons. The sponsor, Miss Mabel Cook, and the three patronesses were also present.

Bearcats Seek to Scalp Cape Girardeau's Indians

Visitors Have Potent Scoring Attack Built Around R. Ripplemeyer

Cape Girardeau's league leading Indians invade Maryville Saturday night for a battle with Coach Dale Kessinger's ever improving Bearcats. It's an MIAA tilt with a scheduled 8:30 tip-off.

Cape, coached by former Kirksville ace Ralph Pink, boast one of their finest teams in years. The Indians have defeated Rolla twice in league play, were runner-up to Washburn University in the Ottawa, Kansas, Invitational tourney and gave mighty Phillips 66 of AAU fame plenty of trouble before losing in the final minutes.

Ted Henderson, last season's all conference guard, again spearheads the Cape Girardeau attack. This year he has plenty of help from Ray Ripplemeyer, a 6-3 transfer from Southern Illinois University. Ripplemeyer is topping the Cape team in scoring with a 16.5 average.

Paul Copeland, Bud Balzar and Sonny Gilbert, all letterman, round out the starting five. Dick Eichorst, Kenny Foster and Gene Munger, all talented second teamers, give the Indians plenty of reserve help.

Last season the Indians and Bearcats split even in two games with each team winning on their home floor.

Against this talented array, Coach Dale Kessinger, of the home forces, hopes that Daryl Flint, Bill Baldwin, Lex Creamer, Maurice Ingram and Ono Monachino will come up with one of their better games and grab off their first conference win.

In their two conference losses to Kirksville and Springfield the young Maryvillians have shown spasmodic flashes of brilliance and by putting four good quarters together could come up with their third victory of the season and first in league play.

Slated for plenty of action in the reserve role are Jim Swaney, John Garner, Weldon Dowden, Bob Smith, and Eddie Hightree.

The preliminary game scheduled for a 6 o'clock tip-off, the Maryville Bees go after their sixth straight decision when they host the powerful Jefferson City Junior College Bears. The Jeff City crew, coached by former Bearcat football star Rex Adams, holds wins over Missouri University B teams, Southwest Baptist College, Joplin Junior College and Hannibal La-Grange.

Maryville Bees in racking up their unbeaten record have knocked off St. Benedict's twice, St. Joseph Junior College, Tarkio "B" and an All Star team.

Paul Clark, Mike Hutcheon, Gus Fasone, Dave Culver, Doug Swearingen, Charles Vowels, Don Holl, Bill Crowley, Charlie Adair and Danny Neville make up the Bearcat B team roster.

The biggest room in the world is the room for self-improvement.

Intramural Sidelights

Intramural basketball continues to take the spotlight with a double elimination tournament now in its final stages.

Six teams still remain in contention for championship honors with the Easterners and All Stars being the only two in the winners' bracket.

In the losers' bracket, the Northerners, Westerners and Red Labels along with the Easterners White team are still in the running.

The Championship game of the tournament will be played as a preliminary the night the Bearcat Varsity faces Warrensburg.

In the recently completed round robin league play, the Easterners won the Green League by posting six wins against one loss.

The White League ended in a three way tie with the Red Labels, All Stars and Easterners each winning five games while losing two.

Intramural action in ping pong and free throwing will get underway at the start of the second semester. All individuals interested in participating in any one of these two activities can do so by contacting their team manager.
